

Overview

Mississippi Stud is a poker game that uses a standard deck of 52 cards, which is reshuffled between each game. Unlike most poker games, the player's hand isn't compared against the house's hand or other player's hands. The player's hand is compared against the payable.

Players start out by placing a bet in the ANTE bet area on the table. Five cards are then dealt face-down. Three of these cards are community cards, the other two cards belong to the player. The player's two cards are revealed.

To reveal each of the three community cards, the player must make 3rd, 4th and 5th Street bets. After each bet, one community card is revealed. The player is given a choice for each Street bet - to wager 1x, 2x or 3x the ANTE bet or to FOLD.

When prompted to make the 3rd or 4th Street bets, the player can choose to make 3x ANTE bets on all remaining Street bets during game play by selecting MAX BET ALL.

Once all the cards have been revealed, the complete hand of five cards is compared with the payable and paid out accordingly.

There is also an optional 3 Card Bonus side bet which pays out based on the three community cards. This side bet can only be made before the cards are dealt.

How to Play

1. To begin the game, the player must place a bet in the ANTE bet area. The 3 Card Bonus bet is optional.
2. Five cards are dealt to the table. The player's two cards are revealed. The three community cards remain face down.
3. The player must decide whether to FOLD or BET. Choosing to fold the hand will forfeit the ANTE bet and end the game. If the player chooses to bet, they must decide whether to bet 1x, 2x or 3x the ANTE bet. This is the 3rd Street bet.
4. The first community card is then revealed. The player must choose whether to FOLD or BET. This is the 4th Street bet and must be equal to 1x, 2x or 3x the ANTE bet.
5. The second community card is then revealed. The player must choose whether to FOLD or BET. This is the 5th Street bet and must be equal to 1x, 2x or 3x the ANTE bet.

6. The final community card is then revealed. The player is paid out accordingly for both the Ante and the 3rd, 4th and 5th Street bets, and the 3 Card Bonus.

7. The player's hand and the community cards make up a five-card hand. The Ante and 3rd/4th/5th Street bets are paid out against the payable for this five-card hand. The three community cards make up a three-card hand. The 3 Card Bonus is paid out against the payable for this three-card hand.

8. The 3 Card Bonus bet is evaluated even if the player folds their hand during game play.

9. Select NEW GAME to begin a new game. Select REBET & DEAL to begin a new game with the previous selected bet(s) and to deal a new game.
